

FILM PRODUCTION AGREEMENT

This Agreement is made on _____ between:

BETWEEN _____ (the "Filmmaker")

AND _____ (the "Sponsor")

WHEREAS the Sponsor wishes to support the production of a short film on the life of Doña Gracia Nasi, and the Filmmaker will produce it, the parties agree as follows:

1. THE FILM

The Filmmaker shall produce a short film of approximately four to five (4–5) minutes on the life of Doña Gracia Nasi (1510–1569), in the style of a trailer, presenting the principal chapters of her life. The film shall be delivered in 16:9, 1920×1080, MP4 format, with music and English subtitles. The film is produced using AI tools; its imagery is created digitally and is not filmed historical footage.

2. SCHEDULE

The Filmmaker shall deliver the final version of the film within one (1) month of receipt of the first payment. The Sponsor shall notify the Filmmaker within five (5) business days of receiving it whether any changes are requested, in a single written batch; any such notice shall constitute a request and shall be determined in accordance with clause 4; failing such notice the film shall be deemed approved and the balance shall fall due. Any delay on the part of the Sponsor shall extend the delivery date accordingly.

3. FEE AND PAYMENT

The total fee for the film shall be NIS 5,000 (five thousand New Israeli Shekels), inclusive of all production costs. Of that sum, NIS 1,500 (30%) shall be paid upon signature of this Agreement, and production shall commence upon its receipt; the balance of NIS 3,500 (70%) shall be paid upon delivery of the final file. The fee is materially below the customary market price for such a film and reflects the shared purpose of both parties. The first payment shall not be refundable.

4. CREATIVE CONTROL

The Sponsor may comment on each version, and the Filmmaker shall consider every comment in good faith. The final decision on each element of the film, including script, shots, editing, music, pacing and visual language, shall rest with the Filmmaker. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Filmmaker shall correct a factual error measured against a documented historical source. Where the Sponsor considers any element to be contrary to the purpose of the film as described in clause 1, the Filmmaker shall give the matter particular weight, and shall consider it and decide.

5. OWNERSHIP AND CREDITS

Copyright in the film and in all materials created for it shall vest in and remain with the Filmmaker. The Sponsor is a supporter of the film and not an investor or shareholder, and shall have no claim to ownership, profits or financial return beyond the terms of this Agreement. The Filmmaker's name shall appear in the credits and shall not be removed, and the Filmmaker may display the film and excerpts from it in his portfolio and marketing materials at no charge. The film shall close with a card bearing the Sponsor's name, logo and dedication; the wording of the dedication shall be the Sponsor's to determine, and its design, typography and placement shall be determined by the Filmmaker in accordance with clause 4. The Sponsor's credit shall not be removed from any version of the film.

6. LICENCE TO THE SPONSOR

The Filmmaker grants the Sponsor a worldwide, perpetual, irrevocable and royalty-free licence to screen, distribute, broadcast, upload and otherwise use the film for any non-commercial purpose, including education, events, commemoration, and fundraising in support of the cause for which the film was made.

7. PUBLICATION AND LANGUAGE VERSIONS

Each party may publish the film and excerpts from it on its own channels and social media, and each party may produce additional language versions, provided that the content, editing and credits remain unchanged. A party producing a new version shall provide a copy to the other party.

8. SHORT-FORM VERSIONS

The Filmmaker may edit the final film into short clips suited to social media platforms, including vertical and square formats. Each party may publish such clips on its own channels, provided that each clip carries a credit to both parties in a form appropriate to its length and format, and that no clip alters the factual content of the film. The restriction on sale set out below shall apply to such clips as it applies to the film.

9. RESTRICTION ON SALE

Neither party shall sell the film, sell or grant licences in it, or charge any fee for viewing it, without the prior written consent of the other party. The use of the film to raise donations in support of the cause shall not constitute a sale for the purposes of this clause. This clause shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

10. GENERAL

This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and supersedes any prior understanding; it may be amended only in writing signed by both parties. Any dispute shall first be addressed by direct discussion between the parties in good faith. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of Israel, and the courts of Tel Aviv shall have exclusive jurisdiction. The English text of this Agreement shall prevail over any translation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the parties have signed this Agreement on the date first written above.
